

Elizabeth Allen, the director and instructor of Artspace has been teaching and making art for over twenty years. Graduating with a BA degree in English and Fine Arts from the University of the South, Elizabeth has established a career as a painter and teacher. She has continued her education by working with internationally known artists Jack Beal, Sondra Freckelton and Janet Fish. Her work may be seen at Gold Leaf Designs and Gallery, Broad Street, Chattanooga, TN. She also teaches in after school programs in area schools.

Artspace was founded in 2002 and is located in the Business Development Center just across Market Street Bridge, Chattanooga, TN. Its mission is to provide quality studio arts programs to students of all ages and abilities. The classes offer a curriculum based on building a strong foundation in the visual arts and allows for individual learning styles and growth.

Studio Time Available

An actual artist's studio, space is available at a small fee for those students who wish to work outside of their classes. Easels, tables and spot lights are available. Reservations for space must be made a week in advance by calling the studio at 605-7087.
